

Girl killed by hatchet

Bloomington
Nov. 13, 1958

(5)

THE HATCHET MAN

189

14 (During one vacation at Indiana University, two girls stayed in Memorial Hall. One night, one of the girls went to bed early. She heard a scratching at the door but was afraid to open it because she was alone. In the morning, she saw her friend had not come in yet and went to look for her. She opened the door and saw her friend lying on the floor with a hatchet in her back and her hand still in the position for scratching the door.

South Bend, Ind.