D. Informant [REDACTED] [REDACTED] learned this story when she was living in Indianapolis, about three years ago. Collected January 5, 1968, Bloomington.

IV. There were three nursing students about 40 years ago who were rooming with each other at I.U. Two of them decided to play a practical joke on the third. So one night when the victim was going out they cut the hand off of a cadavre and put it on the light switch. So when the nurse came in and turned on the light she would grab the hand. The other two nurses left for the night and when they came back in the morning they looked in the room. The hand was gone but the nurse was nowhere to be found. Finally when they searched the room they found her sitting in the closet eating on the hand.
